

Charter Communications is my service provider and my speeds are 768/128. The price for Internet is just too damn high. I think that 54.00 for this kind of service is way too high. I am at the mercy of Charter as this is the only broadband access I have access to.